CORPORATE & BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP

BUILDING HOMES
BUILDING HOPE
CHANGING LIVES

To businesses and corporations that already support the work of Habitat, we thank you for helping to change lives and transform communities. Our corporate partners are fundamental to the success of our mission as we try to exponentially increase the number of families we serve.

We believe there is no more powerful volunteer and charitable experience for you and your colleagues than seeing your dollars at work as a house takes shape, from foundation to finishing touches.

BUILDING MORALE

Donating

Your employees can take part in giving through regular donations or contributions for special event.

Volunteering

Getting people out of their offices and into the community can be a life-changing reminder of the power of teamwork. Employees will leave the build site more motivated than ever to work for a company that believes in giving back.

Developing Skills

At each Habitat build, employees learn skills they can apply anywhere. They become more confident in their abilities to embrace challenges, overcome obstacles and solve problems.

THERE'S A PROBLEM

...WE HAVE ANSWERS

Habitat—a hand up, not a handout—is not a give-away program. Houses are sold to partner families at no profit and financed with affordable loans. The homeowner's monthly payments are reinvested to build more homes for more families.

In addition to a mortgage, every Habitat partner family is required to invest hundreds of "sweat equity" labor hours into building their home. Such a system promotes individual dignity and a sense of ownership in the whole community.

Home ownership creates generational change.

The children of homeowners are more likely to graduate from high school, get better grades and view education as a tool for upward mobility. Children of homeowners also are more likely to eventually own their own homes and be involved in community affairs. The ripple effect of improving one family's housing situation can create a brighter future for entire neighborhoods and communities.
